

REFORM JUDAISM®

Fall 2008, Vol. 37, No. 1 סתו תשס"ח

A benefit of membership in a congregation affiliated with the Union for Reform Judaism, serving 900 Reform synagogues in North America.

FEATURES

26 Founding Myths

Colonial America was no safe haven for minority religions—including Judaism—and the founding fathers were at odds on church-state separation, as a conversation with Steven Waldman reveals.

60 From Hava Nagilla to Hip Hop

A conversation with Naomi Cohn-Zentner on how Israeli music has captured the changing realities and dreams of a nation; musical clips of selected significant songs appear on www.reformjudaismmag.org.

65 Sitting in the Front Row

A conversation with URJ Board Chairman Peter J. Weidhorn on his leadership style, goals for our Movement, family life, Jewish beliefs, hobbies, and more.
