

Grants for all participants from $2,000-$4,500. Ages 18-30.

Learn International Trade at the crossroads of the world

Dig for ruins in the crossroads of every major civilization

Intern in a development town and make a real difference in peoples' lives

Study Bible where it really happened

Learn environmental studies in the land that made the desert bloom

Study hi tech where major American hi tech giants have their R&D

Intern at a news organization where local stories are global stories

Learn Conflict Resolution in the eye of the storm

Do a medical internship in a country with more medical breakthroughs per capita than any other country in the world

Study marine biology where there are more than 1,000 species of rare fish

Spend next semester or next year in a 3,000 year-old classroom. Choose from 150 programs-post high school, semester abroad and post college- from life changing community service and stimulating academic programs to resume building internships. And everything in between.
Grants for all participants from $2,000-$4,500. Ages 18-30.

For more information call:
1-866-864-3279
www.masaisrael.org

MASA is a joint project of the Jewish Agency and the Government of Israel. MASA is made possible by the support of the Government of Israel, the Jewish Agency for Israel and its partners, the United Jewish Communities of North America and the Keren Hayesod around the world.