

CENTRAL CONFERENCE OF AMERICAN RABBIS

Strengthening and Enriching the Jewish Community By Empowering Reform Rabbis as Religious, Spiritual and Organizational Leaders

Offering Timeless and Timely Resources to the Entire Reform Movement

Platforms define who we are as a Movement

Resolutions speak to issues of our day

Responsa apply traditional principles to contemporary issues

(Available on the CCAR website at www.ccarnet.org)

CCAR Rabbis serve many leadership roles in the American Jewish Community:

- Synagogues
- Hillels and College Campuses
- Academics
- Military Chaplains
- Health Care Chaplains
- Prison Chaplains
- Organizations
- URJ Staff, Educators and Regional Directors

CCAR fosters Exemplars of Excellence in the Rabbinate, providing lifelong opportunities for:

- Torah study
- Professional Development
- Spiritual growth and emotional well-being
- Specialized Services, including Mentoring and Placement
- Articulating positions on social, ethical and religious issues of the day
- Chevruta — a nurturing community

CCAR PUBLICATIONS

CCAR Journal explores ideas of Judaism and Jewish life for today's Reform Jew

Liturgies providing Reform Jews opportunities for religious celebration, spiritual growth and prayerful moments in Congregational and home settings, including:

- Mishkan T'filah
- High Holy Day texts
- Haggadot
- On the Doorposts of Your House
- Children's liturgies

CENTRAL CONFERENCE OF AMERICAN RABBIS

355 Lexington Avenue • New York, New York 10017 ■ (212) 972-3636 ■ Fax: (212) 692-0819 ■ www.ccarnet.org

