money for the Holy Land Foundation, an Islamic charity shut down by the U.S. government for funneling money to terrorist organizations." Onickel also cited examples of hateful, anti-Semitic as well as anti-Israel MSA rhetoric on college campuses. Cidor agrees that "where verbal violence and bigotry are expressed, no dialogue could ever exist," but adds: "Since each MSA chapter is independent from the national organization, I would still encourage students to explore honest dialogue whenever possible."

"When to Seek a Pro," about choosing a college consultant, was not intended to imply that only IECA members and AICEP-certified consultants are well qualified. Author Judith Berg explains: "Consultants belonging to other organizations may also be excellent choices. IECA and AICEP were mentioned because both prescreen candidates to determine experience and knowledge."

Also, Florida International University is located in Miami (not Ventura). □
