

How do you turn $6.44 into $1,000,000?

Seven-year-old Jonah gave his rabbi the contents of his personally decorated tzedakah box for the people of Haiti — $6.44. His rabbi sent it to the Union for Reform Judaism. Because of Jonah, and ten thousand others who donated more than $1 million, the Reform Movement is building medical clinics, caring for children with HIV/AIDS, and feeding and sheltering the homeless in Haiti.

There's no better return on your investment.

A million thanks to all of the donors
and volunteers who have contributed to the Union for Reform Judaism Haiti Relief Fund.

The Union for Reform Judaism is able to quickly mobilize more than 900 Reform congregations and their members because generous donors like you support the work of the Union throughout the year, and not just in times of crisis. Please consider a gift to the Fund for Reform Judaism so we can be here the next time disaster strikes.
