Cantors in Our Movement

In the Love in the Movement photo gallery (Spring 2012), one caption stated that an HUC-JIR cantorial student "will be invested...this May in New York." Actually, beginning this May, HUC-JIR will be ordaining—and no longer investing—Reform cantors as well as rabbis. Going forward, all clergy graduates of the rabbinic school and the Debbie Friedman School of Sacred Music will be ordained as rabbis and cantors respectively.

In addition, we were disappointed that the valuable article "Rabbi & President: The Path to Partnership" (Spring 2012), concentrated solely on lay relationships with rabbis. As we move forward together as a Movement, it is important to focus more broadly on our synagogue's clergy teams, nurturing the relationships among rabbis, cantors, educators, administrators, and lay leaders in creating the healthiest, most vibrant congregations.
